Gents,

I feel a need to discuss strategy. Can we make a call happen between noon and 2 EST today?? if we don't get a chance to talk today, then it will be a week later cause Michael is leaving today on vaca...

Thoughts?

Hello Michael,

Thank you for continuing to reach out; I think our phone discussion today was extremely productive.

As discussed, please find the attached document with Sarah and my suggestions for frequently asked questions that were either lacking or not specifically addressed in past documents. We look forward to assisting Diane in any capacity in moving forward with the best public information tool.

Best, Denise
